Leadership Council for Nonprofits has been effectively building the capacity of nonprofits for years. Through the support of our generous sponsors and funders, we've been able to provide more high quality programming for more nonprofit leaders. Our signature programs, including BOLD (Board Orientation + Leadership Development) as well as the many other programs and resources have provided both board and staff of our nonprofits the opportunity to grow, strengthen, lead, connect, and collaborate. This intentional investment in people is the most important ingredient for attaining the highest morale, productivity, and service to communities.

According to Grantmakers for Effective Organizations, building the capacity of leaders is "the single most effective way to make a nonprofit's work more meaningful to its community." Our members comments echo this belief:

"Hi Jenny,

I wanted to stop and say Thank You so much for the spotlight in the Leadership Council newsletter. It has yielded us some great engagement, partnerships, and even donors. While it may be small to you - it was huge to me. Thank you for coming alongside us through this journey, you've been a great support. Just wanted to stop what I was doing and say 'Thank You'." ~ Jordan Bankston, Founder & CEO, Forever Kings

"As soon as ArtWorks joined Leadership Council, I personally met with Jenny Berg to learn about all of Leadership Council's offerings. I jumped at three opportunities: first to be matched with a mentor. My mentor has been invaluable on my leadership journey and we meet monthly. I applied for BOLD and I am a proud graduate of Class 3. This was a foundational program for me as a new CEO to maximize working with my board of directors at ArtWorks, and also to strengthen my knowledge as a leader for boards I serve on in support of our community. I also joined a leadership roundtable and encouraged my entire leadership team to join Leadership Council roundtables. This peer group of local leaders is an incredible sounding board and supportive group for any leader seeking to gain perspective (or stay sane through challenging times, such as a pandemic)." ~ Colleen Houston, CEO, Artworks

As a result of strong programs, available resources, desire of nonprofit leaders to connect, build "BOLD" boards, collaborate and build capacity, our membership has continued to grow 20% annually.

An investment in Leadership Council provides an excellent opportunity to fortify our nonprofit ecosystem by supporting thousands of nonprofit leaders to become stronger, smarter, more connected and collaborative and to secure the future of those they serve. Thank you for considering a sponsorship.

Sincerely,

Jenny Neyer Berg
Executive Director
